Global Power and Technology (15-19 July)
Preliminary course programme

Day 1 (15.07), Monday
Topic of the day: Introduction to technology regulation

Morning sessions:
- Introduction to the course
- The many ways to regulate the emerging technologies (Dr Olia Kanevskaia)

Afternoon sessions:
- The EU internal market as a platform for the digital transition (Prof Dr Sybe de Vries)
- Introduction of the final assignment

Welcome reception

Day 2 (16.07), Tuesday
Topic of the day: Regulating technologies through standardization

Morning sessions:
- Standardization as a tool for technology regulation under EU law (Dr Olia Kanevskaia)
- Addressing innovation through standardization under 101 and 102 TFEU (tbd)

Afternoon sessions:
- Interactive game on developing an ICT standard
- Time for students to work on the assignment

Day 3 (17.07), Wednesday
Topic of the day: study visits to institutions in Delft/The Hague

Social activity in the Hague

Day 4 (18.07), Thursday
Topic of the day: Global and EU perspectives on technology regulation

Morning sessions:
- Time for students to work on the assignment
- Standards and innovation globally (Cindy Parokkil & Hussain Hadi, ISO)

Afternoon session:
- Geopolitics of technology (Dr Kerstin Schaefer)
- Technology vs fundamental rights in EU policies (Marie Gérardy, European Commission, DG Justice & Consumers)

Dinner in Utrecht

Day 5 (19.07), Friday
Topic of the day: presentation of the students' assignments