
Day-to-day program English for Academic Purposes (L24)

16 July - 27 July 2018 (2 weeks)

Students enrolled in current Master's and Bachelor's degree programmes are required to have excellent English language skills, both in speaking and in writing. This course will help you to develop and improve the language skills needed for your studies. You will practice writing academic papers as well as giving presentations in English. You will be working on several aspects of writing, such as the structure of your paper, text cohesion and style issues.
